

EDUCATION OF WOMEN: “AN OVERVIEW”

DR.S.SARAVANAKUMAR*; MR.D.SREEMURALIDHARAN

* PROJECT DIRECTOR (UGC), HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT & ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE, GOBICHETTIPALAYAM-638 453, TAMIL NADU

PROJECT FELLOW (UGC), DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE, GOBI ARTS & SCIENCE COLLEGE, GOBICHETTIPALAYAM-638 453, TAMIL NADU

ABSTRACT:

Education has tremendous task to cope with many developing countries are allocating a quarter despite the immense sacrifice that is being made these efforts must kept up unceasingly and it should never be through that the goal has been reached. This paper examines In these parts of the world where there is a fairly old tradition of school education there are difficulties in plenty at every level of the education system International Scenario, Equality Of Rights, The Urgency Of Need Women Education, Women Education: Growth And Perspective In India, Strategy Towards Women’s Education In The Five Year Plans, Secondary Education, Higher Education, Non-Formal Education. It concluded the programme of action for its implementation and the National Literacy Mission and the successful achievement of the goals imposed in these documents, would be important for improvement in the status of women.

KEY WORDS: Equality of Rights, Five year plans, Women’s Education in India, National Policy of Education.
