ABSTRACT:

The law enforcement is a public service has been emphasized throughout the training course. Still, we need to draw a sharper picture of the relationship between law enforcement and the public it serves. This relationship has many aspects, but essentially it involves two considerations: (1) the dedicated, disciplined approach which law enforcement demands of the police and (2) the manner and method by which the law is enforced for the protection of the life, property, health, safety, welfare, ethics and morals of the public.

KEYWORDS: Police, Law enforcement, Discipline, health, public Relationship.
