ABSTRACT

This paper manages the general state of the rustic Indian ladies and the effect of Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme (MGNREGS) on the general strengthening of the provincial ladies. MGNREGS is for the country individuals, including provincial ladies, who are untalented or semi-gifted. A few arrangements, similar to accessibility of drinking water, shade, medical aid, crèche at the working site have made this plan novel. Crèches are helping the country moms as they don't need to rely on upon others at home to deal with the youngsters. More often than not, the senior little girl assumes on the liability of the more youthful kin at home when the mother is away for work. This office has soothed the senior girls from this obligation and they can go to class. This leader program of the Government of India has been scrutinized from a few quarters. Be that as it may, some positive expectations of the ground-level authorities and the familiarity with the recipients can truly acquire an unrest in the lives of Indian rustic ladies.

KEYWORDS: Leader, Acceptance, Indian, Women, Rural Community.
